Comments: We went to the Rosie show in Tucson a few months ago and Rosie gave us the name Assurance Builders as a Pella contractor and installer in Tucson. We loved the product but was worried about contracting out the installation. John Reuter Sr came to our home and we were so impressed with his company and him. We felt very confident we were making the right choice. We installed 5 new windows including an Encompass window and two vinyl clad special windows. The process from start to finish was stress free, the company's own installation team were top notch and addressed EVERY question we had. We have a security system on the house and when the security company came to hook up the system, he said out of the 4 houses he had been to that day with security systems, ours was the only home where everything he needed was accesible. He was very impressed. And so were we- we would recommend Assurance Builders to ANYONE who wants an ethical, dependable contractor! Thank you Rosie.
