

I have been a customer of East Valley floors over 12 years and they have tiled and carpeted three different homes for me. They have always done an excellent job at a reasonable price. Their crews are very professional, show up and finish when they say they will. I have nothing but good recommendations for East Valley Floors. And I am not related.

Ron