Question for Rosie: In 2006 I needed a new air conditioner. I used Integrity Air because it was on your recommended list. They had told me that they would extent the warranty to five years if I would have them do an annual inspection--this I did. Yesterday, late afternoon, my unit broke. I called Integrity and Miguel, from Integrity, came out. He was as exceptionally nice man. He was able to fix the unit, at no charge to me. Thank you for having your list of approved contractors. I find it to be a great service.
