Comments: I want to praise Chuck Knight, who has been my AC man for a few years now. This week, he really went to bat for me with American Standard. My 14-month old American Standard air-conditioner blew on Sunday. Chuck took this problem very seriously, called me daily with updates, and ultimately was able to replace the AC under warranty after only four days! I have the feeling that he did a lot more than he had to do on my behalf and a lot more than other contractors might have done. I feel very appreciative of Chuck and want you to know this. Keep recommending him because he is the real deal.
